SAVING YOUNG LIVES

Saving Lives, Building Community, Changing Society- The Trevor Project and LGBTQ Youth

Nathan Belyeu, Senior Education Manager at The Trevor Project will discuss current issues facing LGBTQ youth, their families and communities and practical steps that we can take to create positive environments where all youth feel safe and supported. Belyeu will provide an overview of the work The Trevor Project is doing and will discuss the vision of a future where the possibilities, opportunities and dreams are the same for all youth, regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity.

Bio: Nathan Belyeu is the Senior Education Manager at the Trevor Project and is based in their New York City office. Originally from north Florida Nathan pursued his undergraduate and graduate degrees in North Carolina. Nathan speaks to groups of youth and adults across the country about The Trevor Project and how to create more supportive environments for youth. In addition he oversees the wide array of education programs offered by the Trevor Project nationwide as well as developing and implementing new programs.

Connect. Accept. Respond. Empower. –How to Support LGBTQ Youth

This interactive workshop will provide an overview of suicide among lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and questioning (LGBTQ) youth and the different environmental stressors that contribute to their heightened risk for suicide. The first half of the workshop will focus on what research states regarding reducing the risk of suicide and promoting resiliency. After reviewing current research, there will be an emphasis on best practices and practical steps that, educators, parents, community leaders, and others can take to promote a positive environment for all youth. In addition the workshop will encourage resource sharing and dialogue among the participants to create a vision for how to help youth in their communities.

The Trevor Project Lifeguard Workshop for LGBTQ Youth and their Allies

The Lifeguard Workshop for LGBTQ youth is an hour to an hour and a half long structured conversation with LGBTQ youth and their allies that is designed to help youth engage in a dialogue about barriers to seeking help, and ways to get help for themselves or others. In addition the workshop discusses the warning signs of suicide and how to respond to those warning signs in a way that will help keep their peers safe. Lastly the workshop helps youth to identify healthy ways to cope with the stress of coming out, relationship issues and problems at school and other environments.

Kick-Off Dinner and Social!!

This is an all ages event and we will have live music. Wine and Beer will be available for purchase for those over 21.

Please RSVP to johnathan@alaskapride.org

Workplace Giving Gets Going in October

Teams are vying to one up each other in the work place for who can tally the most giving. There are lots of messages out there to break last year's records, and there are even more reasons why it's a good thing to give. Whether it be through the Combined Federal Campaign, Community Share, or United Way it's all good. It's easy, it's a viable show of camaraderie, it gets back to the community, it's less hassle and it can be anonymous.

I'm also a fan of informed choice. Here's the information:

A gift made to Identity goes directly to our programs. We are entirely, 100%, volunteer; there are no salaries to pay. Yes, there is overhead, like keeping the lights on at the Community Center, or paying for the internet, so that those who come to the Center can get online and use the computers. Your information is always secure with Identity.

If you wish to give anonymously, we can do that. If you wish to give in a way that won't be cumbersome and you can forget about it once you've set the plan in motion, we can do that. You set the amount and decide on the timeline: monthly, biannually, or according to your own schedule. We can make it all happen so that 100% of the amount you give is received by Identity in a timely fashion. Then, we get to say thank you.

Contact Gayle or Phyllis at 929-4528 or info@identityinc.org and they will help you design the giving plan that's right for you to make sure that your philanthropic gift to Identity goes right to work.

Phyllis Rhodes Recognized for Service

Fierce advocate, tireless volunteer, unwavering friend, and all around nice person. Anyone who has crossed paths with Phyllis Rhodes, Executive Director of Identity, Inc, can add to the list of accolades for a truly special and giving person known far and wide in the Anchorage community.

This year, the countless hours and personal sacrifice Phyllis has donated to the advancement of equality in the GLBTA community was duly and doubly recognized during the 39th Imperial Court of All Alaska's Annual Coronation held during the Labor Day weekend.

The Court hands out several awards during the evenings festivities. The first award presented to Phyllis, and voted on by the community at large, was the C. Wayne Hussey Memorial Community Service Award. This is given in recognition of a person who has had a lasting and positive impact on the GLBTA community through service and giving.

The second award presented to Phyllis was the Raymond Jorgenson Community Service Award for Businesses and Organizations. This award is presented annually by the College of Emperors and Empresses to businesses and organizations within Alaska in recognition of outstanding contributions to the GLBTA Community. As Executive Director of Identity, Inc., Phyllis was presented with this award in recognition of her leadership and commitment to the mission and goals of Identity and her continuing dedication for equality of GLBTA persons.

Next time you see Phyllis, please join us at Identity and the community center in thanking her for all she has given over the years.
